World Chess Championship: Steinitz to Alekhine

Before FIDE - the freelance World Champions

The World Chess Championship was officially founded by the Steinitz - Zukertort match of 1886. This thrilling account - Part One of the Hardinge Simpole complete history of the World Chess Championship - tells the stories of the champions and their challengers up to 1937.

It is a record of everything that is best in chess from the decades which pre-dated control of the title by the World Chess Federation and the subsequent domination by the USSR.

It is a companion volume to World Chess Championship: Botvinnik to Kasparov.

Pablo Moran was a noted Spanish journalist and chess expert. He has also written the definitive account of the Spanish Chess Championships, Campeones y Campeonatos de Espana de Ajedrez as well as Agony of a Genius, the final years of Alexander Alekhine.
