

Attack and Defence

The fifth and final session from the world-famous chess school

The fifth in the series of phenomenally successful manuals by the world's best trainer and his star pupil

- Advice and instruction on how to attack, defend and counter-attack
- Approaches this key aspect of chess from a wholly new angle
- Essential reading for all ambitious chess players

Dvoretsky and Yusupov's final set of lessons addresses the key aspects of the chessboard struggle: attack, defence, counterattack and the initiative.

Mark Dvoretsky is regarded as the world's leading chess trainer, who has helped many players to become masters, and many masters to become champions. His services are much in demand around the world. His first book, Secrets of Chess Training, won the British Chess Federation Book of the Year Award in 1991. Grandmaster Artur Yusupov is one of Dvoretsky's star pupils, and has reached the final stages of the world chess championship. He has been among the world's leading players for more than fifteen years.

PREVIOUS TITLES FROM DVORETSKY & YUSUPOV'S CHESS SCHOOL PUBLISHED BY BATSFORD:

Positional Play

A best-seller - how to handle make-or-break long-term chess decisions.

0 7134 7879 9 £17.99

Opening Preparation

How to prepare a successful repertoire of openings and use them to win.

0 7134 7509 9 £17.99

Technique for the Tournament Player

Explains how to force home an advantage, or put up maximum resistance.

0 7134 7722 9 £17.99

Training for the Tournament Player

Guidance and exercises for competitive players.

0 7134 7238 3 £14.99

For further information about Batsford chess books, please write to:
Batsford Chess Books,
583 Fulham Road,
London SW6 5BY

Batsford Chess Online: www.batsford.com

£17.99

ISBN 0-7134-8214-1

9 780713 482140 >