The King in Jeopardy: The Best Techniques for Attack and Defense

is the highly praised, best-selling fourth book in Grandmaster Lev Alburt's six-volume Comprehensive Chess Course. The King in Jeopardy's predecessor, Chess Tactics for the Tournament Player, was acclaimed by legendary former Chess Life Editor Larry Parr as "the best thing ever written for achieving quick improvement in tactical play!"

"The Comprehensive Chess Course is simply the best chess instruction I have ever seen. I am a player who has been reading chess books for 40 years without getting any better. Lev Alburt taught me basic things about the game that none of the other books ever taught me. He is a brilliant teacher, and his books capture that brilliance."

— Charles Murray, author of What It Means to be a Libertarian

"GM Lev Alburt, a highly successful chess coach, here offers for the first time the once-secret Russian method of chess training."

— World Champion Garry Kasparov, describing the first two volumes of the Comprehensive Chess Course

"Grandmasters Alburt and Palatnik boldly pledged to give the best techniques for attack and defense of the king. They have managed to live up completely to their promise. A truly great book!"

— Grandmaster Maxim Dlugy, former US Chess Federation President

Grandmaster Lev Alburt, a three-time US chess champion, is known as the "grandmaster of chess teachers." This famed educator is one of the few world-class grandmasters to specialize in helping those below master strength to reach their maximum potential. He has spent years translating secret lesson plans used to produce a long line of Soviet world champions. The Comprehensive Chess Course Series is the result. His co-author, Grandmaster Sam Palatnik, was captain of the Ukrainian squad that won the silver medal in the world team championship ahead of Russia. GM Palatnik is renowned for putting into practice many of the brilliant ideas included in this book.
